

Week 6 · Set A · Broadcast Control

Isaac Lee · Grade 9 · Date: _____ · 20 minutes in class · Total: /20

TIME → TENSE → VOICE → FULL VERB. Read the whole context. A receiver needs passive; a doer needs active. Every item is a new decision.

Past ongoing: was/were V-ing ↔ was/were being + V3 · Present result: has/have V3 ↔ has/have been + V3.

Earlier duration: had been V-ing (active) ≠ had been + V3 (past-perfect passive).

Zone 1 — Confidence Booster

/4

Circle T if the highlighted form is correct, or F if it needs fixing. Correct answers really can be T.

1. The producer has written three safety notices, so they are ready to read now. (T) (F)
2. At eight yesterday, the hosts were recorded an interview; they were doing the recording and had not finished. (T) (F)
3. The community broadcast begins on Friday morning. (T) (F)
4. Before the guests arrived, the technician had been adjusted the sound levels for an hour; she was doing the adjusting. (T) (F)

Zone 2 — Learning Edge

/10

Complete each gap, then switch voice in Q11–12. Follow the requested tense; keep the meaning and time information.

5. At ten last night, the message _____ by Ana; recording was still in progress. [record; past continuous passive]
6. This receiver has worked _____ January, when it was installed, and still works now. [since / for]
7. The documentary describes the _____ day when one missed train changed a family's future. [fateful; use an adjective]
8. Before the programme started, Ravi _____ the final script; the writing was already complete. [write; past perfect active]
9. The live music will continue _____ seven tonight, when it stops. [by / until]
10. During the rehearsal, the backup battery powered the mixer _____ forty minutes. [during / for]
11. →PASSIVE: Noor has checked the weather warning this morning. Keep the doer, tense and time.

12. →ACTIVE: The emergency leaflets were being printed by the volunteers at dusk. Keep the ongoing aspect and time.

Zone 3 — Synthesis Challenge

/6

Write one complete sentence for each task. 3 marks: required tense/voice; target word and time phrase; a grammatical complete sentence.

13. →ACTIVE, past perfect continuous. Liam filmed a large crowd of fans for ten minutes, right up to the caretaker's arrival. Use horde and for ten minutes; show the later arrival.

14. →PASSIVE, present perfect. The presenter has finished explaining a notorious phone scam during today's programme; listeners recognise it now. Start The notorious phone scam; retain the presenter and time phrase.

SELF-CHECK

- ☐ I used the time relationship, not one keyword. ☐ I checked the doer/receiver again.
- ☐ I kept the tense when switching voice. ☐ I checked V3 after have/has/had and in passives.
- ☐ I checked the time preposition and left correct sentences unchanged. ☐ I attempted every item.

First attempt: ____ /20 · Corrections completed: ____ · Answers shown below are models; equivalent grammatical wording is accepted when the required tense, voice and target are preserved.

Q	Answer	Why / marking	Marks
1	T	Has written is present perfect active: completed notices have a result now.	1
2	F	Use were recording: the hosts are doers of an ongoing past action.	1
3	T	A named day and its morning take on.	1
4	F	Use had been adjusting: active duration before another past event.	1
5	was being recorded	The message receives an ongoing past action: was being + V3.	1
6	since	January is the starting point, not a duration.	1
7	fateful	Fateful describes a day with important consequences; it modifies day.	1
8	had written	The writing was completed before the later past event: had + V3.	1
9	until	The activity continues to an endpoint; until, not a deadline by.	1
10	for	Forty minutes is the duration; during introduces the rehearsal event.	1
11	The weather warning has been checked by Noor this morning.	Keep present perfect; the warning receives the action: has been checked.	2
12	The volunteers were printing the emergency leaflets at dusk.	The plural doers become the subject; retain past continuous were printing.	2
13	Before the caretaker arrived, Liam had been filming a horde of fans for ten minutes.	1: active had been filming; 1: horde + for ten minutes; 1: complete sentence showing the time relationship.	3
14	The notorious phone scam has been explained by the presenter during today's programme, so listeners recognise it now.	1: has been explained; 1: notorious + during today's programme; 1: complete sentence retaining the doer and current result.	3

Marking guide

Gap / T-F: 1 mark for the complete correct response. Rewriting: 1 mark for correct tense/aspect and verb phrase; 1 for the required voice with preserved meaning and subject/object agreement. Production: 1 for required tense/voice; 1 for the specified target word or time phrase; 1 for a complete grammatical sentence with capital and full stop. An answer to an F item only needs F, unless correction is expressly requested.

Watch-list: have/has/had + V3, not V2; continuous passive needs being; had been V-ing is active, not automatically passive. Since = starting point; for = duration; by = deadline; until = continuing up to an endpoint. Record first-attempt marks separately from red-pen repairs.
